Parking

MAI has no parking facilities.

Three parking spaces are reserved for people with reduced mobility. There are a few spaces in the streets around the theatre.

Two paid parking lots are located nearby.

We recommend that you arrive 30 minutes early to find a spot and have time to quietly enter the theatre.

Welcome to MAI!

MAI (Montréal, arts interculturels) presents shows and events featuring multidisciplinary and intercultural arts.

Featuring dance, music, theater, visual arts, performance, multimedia and more, MAI presents a wide range of forms, genres, styles, disciplines and languages for a variety of audiences.

Building Entrance

Entrance

Double doors with automatic knobs

Box Office

If you're visiting MAI, you may need a ticket for your event. To pick up your tickets, go to the box office on your right as you enter the building.

MAI Café-Bar

Entrance

Double doors with access code

Café-bar atmosphere

There may be many people around during your visit, and other times, there may be just a few. Before a show begins, the Café-bar may fill up with people. The Café is a safe place to be. If you feel the need to leave the show for whatever reason, you may sit in the Café. During the show, the Café will be quieter and you can ask for assistance from the Front of House Manager if you feel the need.

MAI Café-Bar

Drinks and snacks

Drinks and snacks are available in the Café-bar. It is possible to eat and drink during the show.

Washrooms and Coat check

When you are facing the bar counter, washrooms will be to your right. (Washrooms contain accessible stalls but they are not automatic.) You are free to use the self-service coat check.

Theatre / Performance Hall

The entrance to the theatre is in the Café-bar.

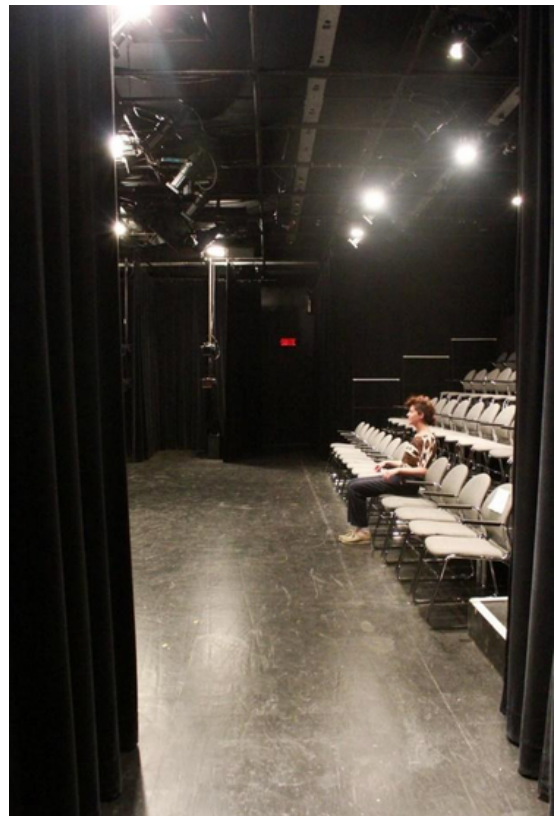

The stage or seating may look different from one show to the next. You can choose where to sit, there is no assigned seat on your ticket.

If you need to leave the theatre during the show, you can use the main door to go to the Café. There, you can take time to relax if you need a break before returning to the theatre. You can go back into the theatre whenever you are ready.

Quiet Area

There is a calm space waiting for you in the Café.

There you will find pictures to colour, as well as anti-stress balls and weighted stuffed animals. You can also help yourself to snacks and beverages. The Café is a place where you can relax and take a little break before returning to the gallery.

Someone from the MAI team is available at all times to help you get to where you need to go.

Assistive Devices

Please bring any assistive devices that you use (cane, wheelchair, walker, etc.). Someone from our front of house team will help you store and retrieve your items as needed.

Assistive Devices

Chairs for all bodies

MAI has 3 comfortable chairs (weight capacity up to 500 lb). If you would feel more at ease in one of these chairs, please let the Box Office attendant or Front of house manager know.

Noise-reducing earmuffs

Weighted animals + anti-stress balls

Earmuffs, weighted animals and anti-stress balls are available at the box office or in the Café-Bar.
